

How to Pull a Business Credit Report from Experian, Equifax, and Dun & Bradstreet

How to Pull a Business Credit Report from Experian, Equifax, and Dun & Bradstreet

Each of the three major business credit reporting agencies pulls information from slightly different sources and provides it in different ways. One of the best ways to determine which business credit report is right for you is to sign in to myaccredit.com and view the sample reports.

Viewing sample business credit reports from Experian, Equifax, and Dun & Bradstreet will show you the type of information you get with each report.

Experian, Equifax, and Dun & Bradstreet Business Credit Reports

Experian Business Credit Report

The Experian business credit report has two options:

- Score Summary
- Premier Profile

The Experian Score Summary provides an overall business credit score, repayment risk assessment, financial stability score, days beyond term, credit limit recommendations, public filings, and more. The Experian Premier Profile provides greater depth and analysis into payment trends, account status, and trade payment summary, including tradeline details, account balances, and status.

Dun and Bradstreet Business Credit Report

There are three versions of the Dun and Bradstreet (D&B) business credit report available:

- Score Summary
- BIR Report
- Public Record

The Dun and Bradstreet Score Summary assesses the risk of a company going out of business compared to similar businesses (business viability), plus a Paydex score that indicates the risk of slow payments on invoices. You also get a total loss predictor that predicts the likelihood of a company paying on time.

The D&B BIR (Business Information Report) report provides a more comprehensive look at publicly traded companies, including payment summaries, terms and balances for creditors by month, public filings and judgments, and financial information such as assets, liabilities, working capital, and net profit (loss).

Dun and Bradstreet also offer a Public Record report that shows bankruptcies, judgments, liens, suits, and UCC filings.

Equifax Business Credit Report

The Equifax business credit report includes a Score Summary, an assessment of repayment risk, financial stability, days beyond term, derogatory legal filings and fraud alerts, and offer credit limit recommendations.

With the Equifax Score Summary report, you also get summary level tradeline details for financial and non-financial tradelines and detailed public record information.

If you are unsure which business credit report is best for your business, you can download our Executive Report to learn how to select the best business credit report for your needs.

You can also choose to order the accredit Composite Score report, which gives you the top-line scores from Experian, Equifax, and Dun and Bradstreet along with risk categories in one concise document.

How to Pull a Credit Report from Experian, Equifax, and Dun and Bradstreet

With accredit, pulling a business credit report takes only a few steps.

1. If you have already registered, you can sign in. If this is your first time on the accredit website, you will need to register. Fill out the information and choose your security phrases. You will be asked to check your email and click on the link to verify your account.
2. Sign into your account.
3. Once you are signed in, you can view sample reports or check the price list for each type of report offered.
4. To buy a business credit report, click on Buy New Reports, choose the type of report, and enter business information, including name and address.
5. Once you confirm the business name, select the types of reports you want and add them to your cart. At this stage, you can also add additional businesses to pull credit reports for or select more than one type of report.
6. Enter your payment information using American Express, VISA, Mastercard, or Discover and place the order.
7. You will be able to instantly download your business credit reports.

With accredit, you do not need to sign up for any ongoing subscriptions. You can buy business credit reports 24/7 on-demand and buy as many as you need.

Buy Business Credit Reports

With accredit, you can pull one business credit report or choose reports from any of the business credit reporting agencies. You may find that a combination of reports will give you a fuller picture for making business decisions when it comes to extending credit to customers and clients or before sending purchase orders to suppliers. You may also wish to check your own business credit report regularly to see how lenders and other businesses view your creditworthiness.

View samples and buy business credit reports now.

myaccredit.com

Search and Select Business Credit Reports